THE TSIKIRAI FAMILY

The Tsikirai Family is a vocal and instrumental group made up of five siblings. Originally from Zimbabwe in Southern Africa, they are based in the Pacific Northwest. The Tsikirai Family love to harmonize and play multiple instruments together. Although they are all pianists, they also sing together. Tino often accompanies the group and sings soprano. Tendo also sings soprano, and she plays the cello and harp. Tata sings alto, and plays the viola, harp, and piano. Tapo also sings alto, plays the violin, and harp. Timothy, the youngest member of the group, plays the violin, and trumpet.

Together with their parents, Jaison and Erica, the Tsikirai Family has been blessed to perform in various settings across the West Coast, including the Oregon Conference Camp Meeting, North Pacific Union events, hospitals, nursing homes, churches, and mission trips. They also shared their musical talents with the world church at the last two General Conference Sessions. The Tsikirai Family enjoy arranging music together and love to use their gifts to the glory of God!
